In weeks that have designated holidays that fall during the regular work week, but not more often than six (6) times per year, the Employer may schedule four (4) ten (10) hour workdays at straight time within the week, excluding Saturdays and Sundays. The Union and the employees must be informed, and the Union must give permission to the Employer in writing."
2. No grievance or claim may be made based on any alleged violation of Article VI, Section 6.11 for the period of June 1, 2023, and the effective date of this Amendment.
